Editorial Review

Review

Heart of the Sun is wonderful collection of personal stories, poetry and connection to Sekhmet and Her Temples in Egypt and now in the Nevada desert. They range from ancient Egyptian hieroglyphic texts about Sekhmet and experiences in Her temples there, to Genevieve Vaughan's experiences of Sekhmet in creating the Temple of Goddess Spirituality in Nevada. They include inspiring poetry and invocations of Sekhmet, channelings of Her words, and contemporary manifestations of Her powers. --Kathy Jones, teacher, healer, initiator, writer, ceremonialist, Priestess of Avalon in Glastonbury England, and the founder of the Glastonbury Goddess Temple, the first formally recognized Goddess temple in Europe for perhaps 1500

Powerful, beautiful inspirational -- Heart of the Sun is a joy for the mind and heart. --Graham Hancock, author of Fingerprints of the Gods and Supernatural.

A feast of poems, hymns, invocations, guided meditations, translations, inscriptions, testimonies, channelings, rituals and short essays mostly, but not exclusively, by women who have been personally and passionately touched by an ancient goddess in contemporary times. For those who love Sekhmet the powerful female among the neter of Egypt, this book is invaluable. For those who do not know this Mistress of Life, this work presents the invaluable as a meaningful and restorative goddess for today's world and one with a name! --Michael York, author Pagan Theology: Paganism as a World Religion
