My Brother Michael (Rediscovered Classics) By Mary Stewart

Mary Stewart, author of many bestselling novels, has been often compared with the Brontë sisters. ## Editorial Review

Review

"Stewart's deft writing and plotting put her among the best of the adventure-suspense-romance novelists."
—Library Journal

"A fast-moving suspense novel set against the background of Delphi, which affords the reader even more hair-raising nightmarish adventures than in earlier novels." —Kirkus Reviews

"This detective adventure . . . is seen through the eyes of a characteristic Stewart heroine; and surely there are few more attractive young women in today's popular fiction." —New York Times

"Mary Stewart's best novel to date . . . The villains are wonderfully ruthless, the people—major and minor—are alive and picturesque, and the treasure-hunt theme has perhaps never had such an awesome and uplifting object." —San Francisco Chronicle

"A perfect blend of romance and suspense with a strong and charming heroine...Though written decades ago, it holds up beautifully." —Nora Roberts, bestselling author
