The Impossible Return to Innocence By J.D. Clair

The Impossible Return to Innocence is a modern fantasy that asks "What if?". What if another world existed beyond our own? One in which Native American legends were true, but not the way we know them. What if you were stolen into that world? Would you want to stay? Could you?

Like many of us, the main character, Dominick, is running from the problems in the known world by escaping into a place further than the expanse. A realm out of reach for most. It is there that he will be forced to realize his own brokenness as well as others.

Editorial Review

Review

"It's surreal, toying with the edges of the bizarre, but with a clean, engaging style that brought me back to reading The Chronicles of Narnia. I wholeheartedly recommend it, especially to fantasy lovers and young readers." -K. Friberg

"As for The Impossible Return To Innocence, what a fantastic ride."

"I was drawn in and attached. I loved the characters, the relationships, and the growth."

"...[The] use of adjectives and word smithery are fabulous. I was running with Dominick in the first chapter."

"I can't wait to read the next installment. ...Loved it!"

- M. LeFevour

From the Author

Every author has to start somewhere and for me it was here, in the Furtherland. I really want to bring you into this place and show you the wonders it holds. Maybe you've somehow seen it before; Like a distant memory in your childhood. Many of these ideas were the elaboration of things buried deep inside me that I pulled out, layer by layer by layer. It's all there...

The absence of the mirror, not being able to see yourself for who you are...
Climbing up stairs that lead to nowhere...
The unstable monster swinging from gentle natured to vicious...
Loving and chasing someone who is always out of reach...
And especially, learning to forgive...

That was me.

There is a spiritual essence and meaning underneath all the flowery words that I pray connects with you. My hope is that this story will steal you off to someplace new and teach you what you already know but somehow forgot along the way.

From the Back Cover

After surviving a brutal attack when he was 12, the violence of mental illness taught Dominick a vital lesson: never stop running.

Now 17, Dominick is pulled into a mystical world by an unknown force. There he must traverse the foreign land and find his way home before being caught by the deathly stalker behind a fractured mask.

Is it real? Is this realm full of burning wind and lumbering monsters merely an echo of the horrors Dominick faced in his childhood or has an exotic threat arisen?

"J.D Clair tells a tale that enchants with the mythical thrill of Native American legend fused with modern fantasy. This haunting adventure will cause you to love, hate, and strive for The Impossible Return to Innocence."
