All things come alike to all: a sermon, on Eccles. IX. 1, 2 and 3 verses. Occasioned by a person's being struck by the lightning of thunder.... By Gilbert Tennent

"For all this I considered in my Heart even to declare all this, that the Righteous and the Wise, and their Works are in the Hand of God: No Man knoweth either Love or Hatred, by all that is before them. All things come alike to all, there is one Event to the Righteous and to the Wicked; to the Good and to the Clean, and to the Unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: As is the Good so is the Sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an Oath. There is an Evil among all Things that are done under the Sun, that there is one Event unto all: Yea also the Heart of the Sons of Men is full of Evil, and madness is in their Heart while they live."

This is an edition of a classical book first published in the eighteenth century.
