Erin is a US Olympic equestrian silver medalist, but she's left everything behind to move to Australia to live with her beloved grandfather. There she runs into Mike McTavish who runs a large farm and who she's been in love with ever since she was fourteen. He's just begun caring for his late brother's twins, and he selected his future wife for the children. When Erin learns that the twins have been mistreated by Mike's fiancée, she must say something...but what if Mike doesn't believe her?
