Editorial Review

Review

"Mr. Tazkuvel does a wonderful job at making such a complicated and specific subject like auras easy to learn while entertaining the reader with his own experiences as an aura reader throughout his life. The guide is well-written, casual but informative, vivid with imagery (from pictures to illustrations), provides tips/tools for training the mind/eyes and ensures that the reader gets a comprehensive guide to auras in a real and tangible way."

"This is one of the most interesting books I have read to date. I had absolutely no idea that I could 'train' myself to see auras! Although I still have a ways to go, I can honestly tell that I am able to pick up on people's auras. The parts on body language and the author's personal story were icing on the cake. Loved it and will definitely be telling everyone I know about it!"

Momto4BookLover Amazon Top 2000 Reviewer

"I was a huge skeptic and got the book thinking I was going to blast it in the reviews. After reading through it though I realize that I was completely wrong! The author does a great job explaining exactly what an aura is, as well as how to interpret them. There are very good exercises to help you train your eyes to see auras."

Irish Times Amazon Top 2000 Reviewer

"The author, a definitive authority on the subject, has provided the best insight on auras that I have found. If anyone else is looking for a book that dispenses of boring rote techniques and useless chatter while providing illuminating provisions regarding the aura, then you can't do better than this one. I've no doubt that it's going to remain a primary reference in my personal library for a long time to come."
