Editorial Review

About the Author

Molly Dowd has been a primary school educator for more than 15 years in both public and private school systems. She is a graduate of The University of West Florida and Florida Atlantic University. She is in the process of obtaining her masters degree in Reading Education. After searching for an effective way to introduce rules to her students, Molly decided to write Kevin Knows the Rules for use in her classroom. It made such a difference for her and her students that she decided to publish it to share with other teachers. Molly lives in Florida with her husband and two daughters.
